Donating blood for $ is legal

But no one does it because there's no market (no demand) – why?

I donate blood on a regular basis. I did it more often when I was working an office job, since there would regularly be blood drives in a big auditorium, but lately it's been less and less. It's just not one of those things that come to mind and unless I see a sign, I don't think to do it.

You don't make money donating blood. Honestly, you shouldn't either. It's a pretty quick procedure, the longest part is the questionnaire, and you're helping folks out. You also get juice and cookies at the end. It's just good karma.
